Bharat Tibbat Sahyog Manch protests on the 58th Anniversary of Sino-India War

BTSM members protesting against Communist China

ITCO, Oct. 20, Delhi: The Chinese

Communist Regime aggressive annexation of Northeastern region of India on 20th Oct 1962 which led to the death of thousands of Indian Soldiers and left millions wounded. This has further resulted in destroying the roadmap of stability between the Two Nations, Panchsheel Treaty signed in 29th April 1954. Bharat Tibbat Sahyog Manch, an organization with more than 250 Chapters in Indian region has remained one of the strongest supporters for Tibetan freedom movement since its inception on 5th May 1999. Today on the 58th Anniversary of Sino- India war, Bharat Tibbat Sahyog Manch headed by National General Secretary Shri Pankaj Goyal and members have protested near Chinese Embassy to mark this day as brutal and illegal invasion. Due to the ongoing Wuhan Covid-19 Pandemic, millions of Indians are facing many challenges and there is so much hatred against inhuman act repeated throughout the year, whether it's border issue or political issue. Members have aggressively protested near Chinese Embassy with slogans likes China Go back, Tibbat Ki Azadi, Bharat ki Suraksha and Kailash Mansarovar ki Mukti. The Protest was joined by Members of BTSM, Regional Tibetan Women Association, Regional Tibetan Youth Congress and ITCO. BTSM organizes this event annually with full active and aggressiveness.

Core Group Members addresses the Press Conference in Guwahati, Assam

Regional Convener Soumyadeep Datta addressing the media

ITCO, Nov. 17, Guwahati: In continuation of emboldening the protest, dissemination of information upon the draconian vision of Communist Chinese Government especially with regard to recent face off at Ladakh and Pangong Tso in June and August respectively, the Core Group for Tibetan Cause – India, headed by National Convener, Sh.R.K.Khrimey; National Co-Convener, Sh.Surendra Kumar; Regional Convener for Assam and Meghalaya, Sh.Soumyadeep Datta and Regional Convener for North Bengal and Sikkim, Sh.Pema Wangda Bhutia addressed the Press Conference at Guwahati Press Club on 17th November 2020. A brief outline of Press Conference and onward journey of Core Group Members till Tawang was presented by Coordinator for ITCO during which he highlighted the urgency of awakening of people’s awareness and support for Tibetan cause, India’s national security, ecological sustainability and cultural preservation of Indo Tibet relations. Along with this, he introduced the apex body of all India Tibet Support Groups which is represented by Core Group for Tibetan Cause – India. In his opening remarks, Sh.R.K.Khrimey reiterated the deep rooted relations amongst India and Tibet. He straightforwardly stated that India has never shared border with China but with Tibet which was forcefully and brutally occupied by People’s Liberation Army of Chinese Government. He strongly protested the claim of China over Arunachal Pradesh being part of Southern Tibet and recent approval of second Railway Line being constructed from Chengdu to Nyinchi (close to Arunachal Pradesh) by Chinese Government. He reaffirmed that Core Group for Tibetan Cause – India remains strongly committed for the safe and proud return of His Holiness the Dalai Lama to Tibet in his life time. Sh. Surendra Kumar, in his address, reminded the media and press about the past border between India and Tibet – safe and friendly – where no any passport, visa or documents required to visit between these two places. Whereas today, India being a developing nation, burdens the expenses the crores of rupees per day upon the security and its management. He reminded that the path of Tibetan cause is synonymous with Ahimsa of Mahatma Gandhi that diminished the colonialism of British raj and ushered India into an air of Swaraj. Sh. Soumyadeep Datta, hailing from Assam with its fragrance of culture and tradition, drew out the essence of Tibetan Freedom and its relation with India particularly with North Eastern Region including Assam, Arunachal Pradesh and Meghalaya.

The purpose of protest was aimed at bringing out the hidden agenda of Communist Chinese expansionist policy from Tibet to Taiwan, from Hongkong to Uighurs and now from Ladakh to Arunachal Pradesh. Given the pandemic SOPs from the concerned administration, a group of more than 50 people joined the protest with placards stating clearly that Tibet was never part of China, Ladakh is inseparable part of India, and Arunachal Pradesh is never part of China. Ms. Ruby Mukherjee, the Regional Convener, CGTC-I, in her address at the protest march, lamented upon the pathetic condition of Tibetans inside Tibet, unending and unlawful practice of torture and imprisonment carried upon the innocent Tibetan people. She reminded the self-immolation of Tibetan people, the only way for them to express their suffocation against Chinese rule has attracted world's attention yet the Chinese Communist Government pay no heed in this regard. Ms. Mukherjee reminded the gathering that it is now the responsibility of Indian people to ensure the freedom for Tibetan people and prideful return of His Holiness the Dalai Lama to Tibet. Sh. Diptman Basu, representing, Jatiyadabadi Juba Parishad, (JJP) categorically protested the Chinese aggression of Indian markets and ruining of Indian small and medium enterprises. Whereas he clarified to the gathering that India has now learnt enough of China's tactics which now India will respond boldly and vocally. Sh. Ramesh Kumar Handa, (retd.) DG, Indian Police, in his address, refreshing his memories of acquaintance and service to His Holiness the Dalai Lama and urged the gathering to pledge that His Holiness the Dalai Lama sees his return in his lifetime through the same path that he took in 1959 while coming into exile in India. Among other distinguished personalities, Dr. Masum Akhtar, Padmashree Awardee; Sh. Subhra Bhattacharjee, Bharatiya Janta Mazdoor Trade Union (BJMTU); Advocate Mohit Gupta, Ganasamannay, Kolkata and others participated in the peaceful protest at Chinese Consulate Kolkata that drew the attention of regional as wells as mainstream national media.
